The Fairy Doors of Ann Arbor

1. Michigan Theater
2. Ann Arbor District library
3. Selo-Shevel Gallery
4. The Ark
5. Red Shoes

6. Sweetwaters Coffee & Tea
7. Peaceable Kingdom
8. Found Gallery
9. UofM Mott’s Children’s Hospital
10. Nicola’s Books

A Goblin Door
I do not like to reveal the location, because it does not seem wise to encourage people to be looking for a goblin door. It seems that a goblin or goblins have made this out of jealousy of the urban fairies. Obviously goblins because of the unsavory location (pigeon poop and cigarette butts) and odd proportions of the door.

Note: Some locations are exterior, some are interior, some have BOTH exterior and interior features...or even multiple points of interest.

Urban Fairies Background
Since around 1993, fairy doors, windows, staircases, and rooms have begun appearing in and around our home. In the Spring of 2005 I noted similar doors in downtown Ann Arbor. Since April of 2005 I have been keeping track of what I have discovered. I created a web-site: urban-fairies.com where I compile much of my findings.

The doors on this guide are certainly not the only doors, but the easiest to tour. Be aware that these are “fairy doors” and may or may not be there at any given time. Have fun searching & always be gentle. You will likely spot other wee doors that are not affiliated with the urban-fairies, thanks so much! ~ Jonathan B. Wright

Urban Fairies Operations

1. The Michigan Theater
   603 East Liberty Street
2. Ann Arbor District Library
   343 South Fifth Avenue
3. Red Shoes
   332 South Ashley
4. Sweetwaters Coffee & Tea
   123 West Washington
5. Peaceable Kingdom
   210 South Main Street
6. Found Gallery
   407 North 5th Ave., Kerrytown
7. Mott Children’s Hospital
   1540 E Hospital Drive (LOBBY)
8. Nicola’s Books
   2513 Jackson Road

As Steven Wright (no relation) says, “Everything is within walking distance, if you have enough time.”

© 2006 Urban Fairies Operations, LLC

NOT to any scale. In fact it is grossly distorted AND not every street shown.